Thomas said to him, "Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?"

Read again John 14:1-14

The disciples were learning how to "read" Jesus. They don't yet understand Jesus' relationship to God. We can read Jesus life as the very model of God and gain greater insight into what God is like. I love this list written by Katherine E. Amos:

- The Father's love for us is unyielding, magnificent, continual, unconditional, and beyond our knowledge and understanding.
- The Father accepts us as and where we are in life rather than expecting us to be what we are not.
- The Father wants a close relationship with his sons and daughters and has given us that status. We are in the family of God.
- The Father considers all of creation good, sacred, and important.
- The Father wants us to be healthy and mature persons in mind, body, heart and soul.
- The Father is a living spirit who has chosen to dwell with us in our earthly life.
- The Father provides for our needs and encourages physical, mental, emotional and spiritual growth.
- The Father will go to any lengths, including the death of his Son, to convince us of his great love for us.
- The Father has provided the Holy Spirit to be active in our lives as a counselor, companion, advocate, and guide.
- The Father is just and gracious, loving us all equally.
- The Father rushes to meet us as we return to him and forgives us of our failures.
- It is the Father's intent that we should all be his children and live with him in this world and the next."

Prayer of the Week:

Dear God, I want to know you better. Knowing you better will lead to insights about myself. Lead me to be open to the love and guidance of the Spirit. Allow me to use the power Jesus has promised to partner with you and do the work you planned for us to accomplish in this world together. I ask this in Christ's Name. Amen.
